

MAYANK KUMAR DINKER

Technical Specialist - Financial Management & Accounting Services

CA Mayank Kumar Dinker is a highly experienced professional serving as a Technical Specialist in Financial Management and Accounting Services at CPA Services. His academic credentials include being a qualified Chartered Accountant and holding a Bachelor's degree in Commerce from Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar Bihar University (BRABU). With more than 12 years of active career service, He has emerged as an accomplished expert in several aspects of financial management and CFO Services. He has gathered wide-ranging experience in statutory audits, internal audits, and taxation both Direct and Indirect.

Currently at CPA Services, He is involved in a number of important functions. These include professional tax consulting, including advising on tax planning and compliance matters with a view to assisting clients in optimizing their tax positions within the ambit of compliance with regulatory requirements. Accounting services, such as the preparation and analysis of financial statements for validity and reliability according to generally accepted accounting principles and standards.

He undertakes the responsibility of making sure that the agency complies with the law, incorporates and takes into effect all further changes in regulations and makes any amendments that may be required.

With a wide experience and great skill set he has built over time, he becomes a vital addition at CPA Services, where his expertise significantly contributes to the capability of the firm in the delivery of quality financial management and CFO Services.