

PROF. P. JUDSON

Dr. P. Judson is the Integral Mission Coordinator of Canadian Baptist Ministries. He has served with his alma mater, Osmania University, from where he completed his PhD in Zoology in 1981, for many years. He has 19 publications and research to his credit. He has an affinity towards the farmer and the tribal community and has therefore, conducted many trainings and pilot projects for them. Dr. Judson has been a resource person to National Institute of Rural Development (NIRD), Government of India, for providing training on Farming and Non farming Entrepreneurial Development to the Rural Development Secretaries of 11 countries.

Further, he has closely worked on issues related to Food security, Agriculture and Agro forestry, Health and Environment (including HIV/AIDS) and Organic Cotton farming. He has also acted as an advisor to the Central Staff Selection Commission (SR) Govt. of India and is currently the Board member of various recognized academic and social institutions.