

Mr. Nihit Kumar

Technical Specialist - Communications and Admin

Nihit Kumar serves as the Technical Specialist – Communications and Administration at CPA Services, supporting the organization's communication systems, digital platforms, and administrative operations.

He holds a Bachelor's degree in Electronics and Communications Engineering from Thapar Institute of Engineering & Technology and brings experience in Business Analysis, digital systems management and process optimization. Working at the intersection of technology and operations, he helps the organization streamline processes and leverage technology-driven solutions to improve operational efficiency and outcomes.