

ANURADHA SINGH

Director Finance & Administration

Anuradha Singh, with more than three decades of experience in the organization, Heads the Finance and Administrative Department. Active since the conception of the organization she has helped shape the organization's operational structure.

In her role, she is responsible for the administrative, operational, and financial support for the organization. Primarily focusing on overseeing daily operations and maintaining the overall efficient and professional functioning of the office. Carrying out many of the organization's operational functions including directing and supervising the development , implementation and updating of policies and procedures, appropriate procedures, and internal controls that meet operational and management needs and ensuring compliance.

She believes that the true way for the organisation's success is by creating an environment where all employees are valued and supported and above all equity is promoted.

After graduating with a bachelor's degree from Delhi University, she pursued a Diploma in PGHRD from AIMA. Finished Leadership Program from Harvard Business School. She has also pursued linguistics in German and Russian.