

SANDEEP SHARMA

Executive Director

Mr. Sandeep Sharma has been serving the civil society in various leadership roles for nearly two decades. His major focus has also been in the area of building capacities of Development Institutions. A seasoned trainer, he has facilitated more than 500 workshops across the globe on areas of financial management, NPO governance and legal compliances. He has been involved in several organizational development processes for national and international organizations. He is committed to the values of accountability and transparency. Over the course of his long association with FMSF, he has been actively involved in several financial and governance reviews, specialized investigation processes and evaluations of NGOs across South Asia. He has led the process of identification of project partners for Bread for the World, Germany and other international resource sharing agencies in South Asia.

He has authored several books on best practices around NPO governance, financial management and legal compliances like “NPO Governance and law in South Asia” and “Handbook for Social Audit of NGOs”, ‘Finance & Legal Handbook for NPOs”, “Comprehensive Commentaries on FCRA 2010”, etc. He is also the editor of a half yearly journal called “INTERface” which is a compilation of articles on NGO finance, governance and legal compliances in India and a monthly E-communiqué called “Standard & Norms” which deals on financial and legal compliances concerning voluntary sector in South Asia.

He was also nominated and selected from India for the prestigious International Visitors Leadership Program (IVLP) Organized by the U.S. Department of State. Further, he has also served as the visiting faculty at Birla Institute of Management Technology (BIMTECH), Greater Noida, India on Program Monitoring and Evaluation. He also serves on number of boards of national and international development agencies.

With great sensibility towards the needs of small and mid-sized NPOs in India and deeprooted empathy for social causes, Mr. Sharma also Co-founded INDIADonates, an enabler of social development with a premise to optimizing the strength of individuals and minimize the friction of resource availability on the ground.

A strong exponent for strengthening the civil society, Mr. Sharma regularly writes and speaks on the emerging exigencies within the development discourses and is one of the leading voices of the social impact space in India.