

ILMA KHAN

Consultant Communications

Ilma Khan, who is joining us as Consultant Communications. She is a passionate digital communication professional with a strong foundation in digital design, storytelling, and social media. She thrives in creating engaging content—including brochures, social media creatives, presentations, and websites by combining creativity and technical skills.

Ilma has completed her Master of Arts in English from Jamia Millia Islamia University. Before joining us, Ilma was associated with Transform Rural India (TRI) doing various design projects.