

ANUVINDA VARKEY

Trustee

Anuvinda Varkey graduated with an honors degree in Philosophy from St. Stephen's College, Delhi. She went on to study law at the Campus Law Center at Delhi University.

She practiced law at the district Courts and the Delhi High Court. She was a consultant on an Asian Development Bank, Technical Assistance, on Access to Justice. In 2009, she was appointed as the General Secretary/CEO of the YWCA of Delhi. She is the first executive director of the Christian Coalition for Health where she engaged with stake holders and policy makers advocating for healthcare for people living in difficult to reach areas of this country. She is presently a partner and legal consultant at a consulting firm, Market and Eco Systems Advisory.

Anuvinda serves on the board of several societies and trusts working on women's issues and healthcare. She presently serves on the board of Azad Foundation, FMSF and CPA Trust and is the chairperson of the Christian Medical College, Vellore. Tamil Nadu.