

ANIL SAINI

Program Coordinator

Anil holds the position of Program Coordinator at FMSF, is a seasoned professional with over a decade of diverse expertise across Training and Capacity Development, Proposal Development, Project Management, Monitoring & Evaluation, Liaising, and Coordination in both Government and Non-Governmental sectors. His impressive skill set encompasses a wide spectrum, including Life Skills, Social and Financial Education, Gender Mainstreaming, Citizen Strengthening, Women and Child Sexual Abuse Advocacy, Program Implementation, and Team Management. With meticulous attention to detail, Anil crafts comprehensive project reports, ensuring stakeholders are fully informed of progress and accomplishments.

Starting his career as a grassroots-level educator, Anil's passion for youth engagement ignited his journey. Armed with a Bachelors degree in Commerce, his drive to tackle societal challenges led him to pursue advanced studies in social work, culminating in a Masters & Degree from the prestigious Tata Institute of Social Sciences.

In his current role, Anil is at the forefront of designing holistic capacity-building strategies for Civil Society Organizations. Acting as a vital link between FMSF and its partners, he orchestrates project activities to foster collaborative synergy, driving maximum impact and ensuring successful program outcomes. Additionally, Anil is dedicated to providing tailored mentoring, guidance, and hands-on support, facilitating seamless integration for partnering organizations into developmental initiatives.

Outside of his professional endeavors, Anil finds rejuvenation in mountainous escapades, immersing himself in trekking adventures and exploring uncharted territories. A true epicurean, he delights in the art of culinary exploration and experimentation, showcasing his passion for food in every gastronomic journey.