

BHANUSHREE GOYAL

Lead - Grants & Strategic Initiatives

Bhanushree is working as a Lead - Grants & Strategic Initiatives at FMSF. She holds a Master's degree in Business Administration with a specialization in Finance, and is also a qualified Company Secretary (CS).

Starting her career in the corporate sector, she has gained over 10 years of extensive experience in the fields of tax, legal and secretarial consultancy by working with companies like Deloitte, DCM Shriram and Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs (IICA). In her quest for a fulfilling and purposeful career, she made a transition to the development sector, where she has spent the past few years in the area of grant management of development projects across South Asia.

In her current role, she is responsible for financial monitoring of approximately 20 development projects based in India. As part of her role, she undertakes periodic visits to the partner organization to assess their position in the areas relating to financial management, internal control systems, governance and legal compliances. She also monitors the implementation of the projects in line with the utilization of funds, analyses the periodic financial reports, reviews and facilitates disbursement of grants, analyses various documents with financial information and ensures compliance with donor as well as statutory requirements.

Along with the financial monitoring of projects, she is also involved in the capacity building of NGO partner organizations. She has facilitated a few workshops on donor standards and reporting requirements within India and has also facilitated online courses as a technical resource person. She has also contributed to the development of technical resources, including writing article on cash flow management and risk management for NPOs in a half-yearly journal published by FMSF.

When not working, Bhanushree loves to spend her time in writing, travelling, baking and hosting family and friends.
