

GOURISHA BHARDWAJ

Capacity Building Officer

Gourisha Bhardwaj is a dedicated and versatile professional currently serving as a Capacity Building Officer at the Financial Management Service Foundation (FMSF). With over four years of diverse experience in the finance and communications domains, she brings a unique blend of analytical acumen and creative thinking to her role.

Before joining FMSF, Gourisha was part of the Laghu Udyog Bharati team, where she worked on initiatives supporting small and medium enterprises. She also contributed to Brooks India, gaining valuable experience in corporate communications and stakeholder engagement.

Gourisha holds a Post Graduate Diploma in Journalism and Mass Communication from Amity University. A firm believer in the power of collaboration and teamwork, Gourisha thrives in environments that promote collective growth and adaptability. She is known for her positive attitude and solution-oriented mindset.

Beyond her professional commitments, Gourisha finds joy in creative pursuits. She has a keen interest in sketching and DIY projects, considering them as therapeutic outlets that allow her to unwind and express herself.