

ALEENA KHAN

Capacity Building Associate

Aleena Khan is a dynamic and dedicated professional, currently contributing her expertise as a Capacity Building Associate at the Financial Management Service Foundation (FMSF). In her role, Aleena plays a crucial part in enhancing the capabilities of organizations within the development sector.

Aleena holds a Master's degree in International Relations from Amity University. Known for her passion and innovation, Aleena thrives in environments that encourage continuous learning and growth. She is constantly seeking new opportunities to enhance her skills where her proactive and curious approach enables her to bring fresh ideas and creative solutions to her work, fostering an atmosphere of progress and adaptability.

Outside of her professional commitments, Aleena is an avid traveler and loves listening to podcasts.